

KASPER BJØRKE: HEAVEN - 12" / DIGITAL - OUT: 23.07.2010 WITH REMIXES BY NICOLAS JAAR, PRINS THOMAS AND MUZZLE FLASH!

Kasper Bjørke is the Danish multi-talent whose second album 'Standing On Top of Utopia' was recently released on hfn music to much international applause.

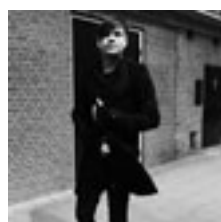

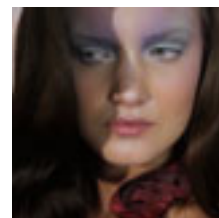

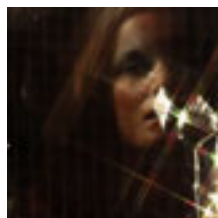

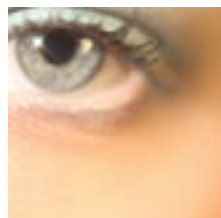

The beautiful, classic-analog meets cutting-edge-futuristic sound of the album has kick started a revolution in post-electronic stylings where songwriting and genuine musical ideas stand in the forefront of tough beats or unnerving trippiness. This remix package represents this wholeheartedly, with three outstanding moments in fresh and addictive hybrid sounds, right in time for summer!

'Heaven' was the touching, haunting song that Mr. Bjørke has perhaps become best known for of late. Now a certain Mr. Prins Thomas hands in his amazing 'Diskomiks' version, which stretches out dreamily over 9 minutes in this honest and essentially timeless re-arrangement. Live guitar overdubs, drifting strings and soft, lazy vocals are all in full effect!

Muzzle Flash's version adds a little more pressure for the dancefloors, while still maintaining that slower, lazy vibe. This is modern disco house for real connoisseurs of the genre. With tension and perfectly-timed, carefully measured builds and lifts, this remix boasts warm, room filling vibes with plenty of soul.

American sensation Nicolas Jaar contributes his remix of 'Heaven' which boasts some wonderful live instrumentation, airy, open sound design and a free, hazy atmosphere that really comes alive as the track floats onwards.
